Blue Sea

Situated on the Great Ocean Road with sweeping views of the ocean and Apollo Bay main beach, this architecturally designed home by well-known architects Fooks, Martin, Sandow & Anson, has been developed with thought and great care. The apartment, located on the north side of the development and directly opposite the beach, is one of four on a large corner allotment, cleverly designed to ensure privacy. The first level has three bedrooms, all good sizes with built in robes, a bathroom/laundry combined, a separate toilet and an ensuite accompanies the larger bedroom which faces the sea. Beyond the master bedroom is a sheltered area with garden seat so you can take in the sounds of the surf before your swim or stroll on the beach to town to collect the morning papers. The second level has a generous size kitchen dining area, perfect for a large family gathering or entertaining friends. The open plan kitchen, dining and living area spills onto a wide deck, ideal for BBQs or watching the sun rise in the morning. There are views of the Apollo Bay main beach, the harbour and the hills that
