15 Murray Street, Apollo Bay

An oasis in the township of Apollo Bay on a half-acre block and only 300 metres from the beach, properties of this size and location do not come to the market very often. This property has been lovingly developed over time, the house restored with a casual seaside charm maintaining its original values and the garden planted to attract birdlife and ensure peace and tranquility in a coastal township.

The property enjoys immediate access to the amenities of Apollo Bay, including the luscious surrounding hills offering bush walking, pristine and safe surf beaches, boat harbour and launching facilities, plus the golf course, and sailing and fishing opportunities.

The main dwelling consists of three bedrooms, a large central combined lounge, dining, kitchen area perfect for big family gatherings. The home has beautiful Baltic pine flooring, combustion heater, gourmet gas stove and a large outdoor living and entertaining area. The greater property also includes a large shed with three work areas and a first floor studio with reverse cycle air conditioner, a balcony overlooking the garden and
