

42 Thomson Street Apollo Bay, VIC

Quintessential Beach House

This quintessential beach house is in perfect condition. Ready to hit the ground running for holiday rental market. The home boasts a stylish kitchen, newly renovated bathroom, a large north facing deck and beautiful polished hardwood floors.

Set on a huge block of 836sqm approx with a shed out the back, this three bedroom home, is in a perfect location. Long known for its coastal appeal, Thomson Street is quiet with no through traffic and has wide nature strips and is super close to the beach, only a few minutes' walk, as well as the cafes and restaurants that grace Apollo Bays main street. Stunning views of Marriners Lookout from the rear of the property and views of the water from out the front and priced to sell, make this property a classic coastal beach house.
