Sundrenched coastal oasis

A sundrenched coastal oasis set around a glistening swimming pool and sundeck that is perfectly positioned to capture the gorgeous views of the tree tops and ocean views. This four bedroom beach house is filled with natural light and space with a relaxed and casual coastal elegance all of its own.

Set on a generous landscaped allotment of 1210sqm (app) with the Great Otway National Park at the rear boundary this home will become your own private sanctuary.

As you enter the property you have a feeling of serenity and spaciousness. Designed to be shared, the upper level of this home boasts an open plan kitchen, living and dining area. The sunny living area leads to the expansive north facing decked entertaining area and solar heated swimming pool, offering a beautiful treed outlook with bush and water views.
