Elevated allotment with breaking surf views

An opportunity to secure one of the few remaining vacant allotments in prestigious Lialeeta Road. The elevation of this property means it enjoys a beautiful view across to Lorne as well as breaking surf at Fairhaven beach. There is easy access to both the beach and the Fairhaven Surf Lifesaving Club via a nearby easement and the Great Ocean Road underpass. The large 1184sq, gently sloping allotment provides ample space to build your new beach house, in an excellent location. Given the elevation and fall of the land across the road, the views cannot be compromised. There are strong recent comparable sales in the street to support the price and we look forward to assisting you.
