Expect the Unexpected

It's not often that a home truly surprises you. This exciting residence invites you to expect the unexpected. Stylish design, high quality finishes and a seamless indoor-outdoor living and entertaining layout gives this four bedroom home a relaxed and casual coastal elegance. Set on a generous grassed and family friendly allotment of 703sqm (app) this home will become your own private sanctuary. As you enter the property you have a feeling of serenity and spaciousness. Designed to be shared, this home boasts high ceilings and a single level floor plan comprising of an open plan kitchen, living and dining area. The sunny living area leads to an expansive north west facing covered deck area, offering a beautiful treed outlook over the expansive backyard. The impressive four bedroom recently renovated home is filled with bright northern light, two living areas and inverted ducted heating/cooling system that is zoned throughout the property for those cosy evenings and cool mornings.
