Beach house with views

Now available as a permanent rental until after Easter 2018, 23 George Street is a spacious and light filled beach house positioned in a highly prized pocket of Anglesea. Just a short stroll to the town centre, river, golf club and beach, this lovely 4 bedroom home has gorgeous tree top views with glimpses of the ocean and will certainly appeal to anyone looking for a lease to enjoy all the seasonal joys that the coast has to offer from now until 8th April, 2018.

This two storey beach house is open plan with two living and multiple deck areas. Upstairs the spacious master bedroom is complete with walk-in-robe, ensuite and access to the private deck with views over the hinterland, front garden and glimpses of blue water. Downstairs the floorplan is ideal for family life with three bedrooms, a central bathroom including bathtub and a kitchen/living/dining area that overlooks the private front yard as well as rear decking. The property is fully fenced with a low maintenance garden and lawn providing a lush green outlook. Tucked away in a quiet street this beach house provides privacy
