Prized Anglesea Location

The residence is a classic coastal cottage with so many appealing aspects. For many it will be exactly how they imagine a beach house should look and feel. The north facing sunny aspect, the intimate lounge room in front of the open fire, the established low maintenance garden and the decked outdoor entertaining area. In arguably one of Anglesea's finest locations with the beach, river, surf club and cafes a short stroll away. A tightly held unmade road provides a private coastal haven for the family to relax and unwind.

This beautifully presented single level north facing property allows seamless indoor-outdoor living featuring, 3 bedrooms and a central bathroom/laundry. The open plan kitchen/living and dining opens directly onto the garden and at the rear of the property is a sun filled decked entertaining BBQ area and a generous grassed, treed backyard.
