Brand Spanking New Home

A refined blend of materials and modern finishes defined by clean contemporary lines combined with a low maintenance allotment make this home ideal for those seeking a holiday home within easy reach of the ocean. Newly built with quality appointments this home comprises a front veranda offering views of the hills with large windows to maximise the entry of natural light. The living space is finished soft tones and warm textures of timber flooring to compliment the open plan kitchen with stainless appliances and grey stone look benchtops. Two beautifully proportioned bedrooms with built in robes share access to a central bathroom with a luxurious feel created by the use of charcoal tiles merging with timber cabinetry and laundry facilities. Well designed and positioned offering access to Apollo Bay's cafes, restaurants, P-12 college and boutiques.
