Lock up and leave

Not only is this property in a brilliant location, it is absolutely ideal for those who want to enjoy their time on the coast without having the burden of having to look after a large second property. Built in an appealing coastal style, this two bedroom residence is set in the heart of the ocean side precinct of Aireys Inlet and is walking distance to all your needs. The property is presented in excellent condition and features include polished timber floors, wood heater, air conditioning, private screened north facing sun deck and an abundance of natural light. A great, low maintenance property, in a great position, for those whose priority is to have a great time when on the coast.
