Divine views

Tucked away, adjacent to a council reserve and overlooking green pastures and the hinterlands, the voluminous interiors have been designed for entertaining. To set the scene, there's an oversized and open plan living and dining space enhanced by large windows and ducted heating and cooling throughout. With a stunning ceasar stone kitchen with glass splash-backs, island bench and quality high end appliances including a dishwasher and a large stainless steel oven. The butlers pantry is designed as a second food preparation kitchen and storage area. Faultless in detail and appointments the master bedroom comprises a generous walk in robe and luxurious ensuite. Whilst the further 3 bedrooms also offer the feeling of space and include generous built in robes. Other features include a central bathroom with separate toilet, laundry, low maintenance gardens and a lock up garage. Unparalleled in setting, quality, luxury and space, this premium residence presents a rare opportunity to secure a private and low-maintenance family home with an eye for entertaining in beautiful surroundings within
