Set amongst the trees

Set perfectly amongst the trees this beach house captures a beautiful native outlook across the tree tops, over the golf course and towards Point Addis. Watch the ever-changing panorama unfold from this elevated northerly position.

With its abundance of natural light and framed by glass to capture the 180-degree views, the spacious upstairs open plan living/dining and kitchen encourages an easy flow to the expansive sundeck that wraps around the home to the covered entertaining area, perfect for indoor/outdoor living and that relaxed coastal lifestyle.

Cleverly designed to maximise the treed vistas, this beautifully presented two-storey beach house features four large bedrooms zoned for family living, two bathrooms and a second living area.

Positioned on a 764sqm (app) elevated allotment, this property feels like a natural oasis with its native landscaped grassed backyard and treed outlook providing a profound sense of privacy and space.
