The three golden rules in real estate are well known, however with coastal real estate there are actually six. These six golden rules translate into - buy the most spectacular view, in the best position, for what you are happy to spend.

With this very solidly constructed, low maintenance beach house that is exactly what you are achieving.

Set on a large 1039sqm (app) allotment, the 4BR residence enjoys spectacular ocean views over the breaking surf towards Lorne and is a very short walk to the stunning 6km long beach that runs from Aireys Inlet to Eastern View. The property also adjoins the Great Otway National Park which is ideal for mountain biking or bush walkers.
