

96 Dorman Street Lorne, VIC

One of the best, uninterrupted views in Lorne

Even the sea view from the front door won't prepare you for the breathtaking panoramic vista that greets you from inside. This is one of the best, uninterrupted views in Lorne and it is on display from almost every room.

In the open plan living zone, full height glazing frames the views from the Split Point Lighthouse in Aireys Inlet across to the famous Lorne Pier. With a total of 4 bedrooms, there is plenty of room for everyone to enjoy this outstanding location. Convert the rumpus to a media room and add a few modern touches throughout to elevate this home to the next level. Beach access is literally minutes away via a nearby Great Ocean Road underpass.

Life here slows to a gentle pace encouraging star-gazing, time spent looking for passing whales and watching the seascape change with the seasons. Quietly tucked away yet so close to the highlights of Lorne, this home offers a solid foundation on which to build a lifetime of seaside memories.
