A Contemporary Classic

A contemporary classic with a striking modernist facade this stunning property contains extensive zoned living precisely executed with high quality materials and finishes to create a sense of total luxurious relaxation. Striking the perfect balance between impressive proportions and a versatile floorplan, this four bedroom, four bathroom contemporary residence is made even more desirable by its absolute prime location in the heart of Apollo Bay.

Comprising both an upstairs and downstairs kitchens with quality appliances, a total of four bedrooms with built in robes (two upstairs, two downstairs) two featuring their own private ensuites. Interesting architectural lines and highlight windows further emphasise the home's openness and light which features access to deck space and balconies and features a large sun drenched rooftop terrace with spectacular views stretching from the harbor along the coastline with stunning ocean views and the rolling Otway hills as the backdrop. A flexible floorplan provides the potential to covert the property in to two separate apartments both offering 2
