Stunning 1950s™ beach house in Old Torquay UNDER CONTRACT

This modernized 1950s beach house has personality in abundance. A sensitive update showcases mid century style and the extremely popular Old Torquay location delivers a simple and carefree life. The spacious open plan living zone is flooded with natural light and flows seamlessly out to the sunny north facing deck and landscaped gardens. The décor is contemporary and bespoke timber accents create a warm and unique aesthetic. There are three spacious bedrooms with ample storage and the family sized bathroom is simply gorgeous. A detached studio offers potential for varied use and is finished to same exacting standards as the main home. Outdoor entertaining here is easy. Choose a sunny, shady, or sheltered spot for relaxing or playing. The back-yard fire pit is perfect for social evenings after a day spent at the beach all year round. The best of Torquay is on the doorstep just a short stroll to local shops, cafes, restaurants and beaches. With all the hard work done, life here is about winding down, enjoying the moment and embracing the idyllic Surf Coast lifestyle.
