Contemporary coastal living in brand new home

With deluxe design aesthetics, and perfectly positioned for an abundance of natural light, this home offers a modern, functional floorplan and boasts three living spaces. Located in the popular Zeally Sands Estate, this impressive residence consists of four spacious bedrooms, including a private master retreat with two walk-in robes. The spacious en-suite features a freestanding bath, double vanities, floor to ceiling tiles, and twin square overhead showers for resort style showering, while a family bathroom and separate toilet services the bedrooms in the west wing. Neutral interior tones meet rich merbau decking and beautiful landscaping, effortlessly connecting the outdoors with the coastal feel inside. Light and airy with large windows throughout draw in the sunlight and sea breeze, while ducted heating provides perfect comfort over the winter months. The central dining, living and kitchen area invites family to connect, with triple stacker sliding doors leading onto a covered north facing alfresco area for year round entertaining. Additional living spaces offer options for privacy,
