Bush retreat on the coast

Every property has a feeling or emotion that it evokes when you enter it and with this property, it is one of serenity. You are surrounded by light which just seems so appropriate for a coastal residence. The natural colours of the bush are complimented by the internal finishes of the residence, providing a great experience for any occupant. The open plan living, kitchen and dining area opens out onto a north facing sundeck capturing the full extent of the Allenvale Camping Reserve, with numerous walking and bike trails. There is ample accommodation in 4 bedrooms, one of which is a large bunk room, 2 bathrooms and ample parking. Set on 456sqm, the driveway up to the house is fully paved and with landscaped gardens, there is minimal maintenance required, which is ideal for a house on the coast. This is a property that will surprise and delight with its feel good flavour and excellent presentation.
