Ships Ahoy

Just up the road from the beach with views stretching to Cape Patton and the Apollo Bay Harbour this two storey contemporary house has plenty of appeal.

Upstairs the main living, dining and kitchen open out to a large deck which wraps around the front of the house. The master bedroom with ensuite from timber French doors which also open out to the deck.

Downstairs has a further two generous sized bedrooms, the large of the two flows out to another large deck area accessing the garden. The main bathroom is its own sanctuary with a large sunken spa bath, generous shower and French doors allowing you to open up the room and enjoy warm balmy evenings.
