Perfectly Parker - set amongst the trees

With a lovely elevated and quiet position, this wonderful coastal home is set perfectly amongst the treed canopy, capturing a beautiful native outlook across the tree tops towards the Anglesea Golf Course. Watching the ever changing panorama unfold from this elevated northerly position can form part of your everyday living.

With its abundance of natural light and framed by glass to capture the treed views, the spacious upstairs open plan living, dining and kitchen encourages an easy flow through to an expansive sunny/covered entertaining area; perfect for indoor/outdoor living and that relaxed coastal lifestyle.

This two storey beach home comprises of four bedrooms (the fourth being the bunk/rumpus room) and a central semi ensuite bathroom. The substantial lower level rumpus/bunk room is an ideal zone to accommodate teenage children and/ or extended friends and family.
