Belton Street Beauty

Is an understatement to this substantial and solid coastal property. This is the perfect coastal property to accommodate the largest of families or extended family and friends with five bedrooms (the fifth can be utilised as a rumpus room) and three bathrooms coupled with a generous open plan living area. The large and expansive deck offers a lovely north facing treed aspect with broad views of the Anglesea Golf Course and beyond to the Anglesea Heath.

An unexpected additional to this substantial property is an indoor swimming pool and spa (solar and gas heated with automatic water filtering) with an outstanding indoor entertainment zone equipped with a kitchenette, air conditioner and wet area that could also be used as an all year round gym. Secure rear yard, ample off street parking, polished hardwood timber flooring, high ceilings, a reverse cycle heating and cooling unit and spacious bedrooms are some of the additional attributes. This beautifully presented property offers life style and investment options along with the much prized coastal location of Anglesea.
