Contemporary light filled coastal home

If you are searching for a modern coastal residence that is an easy walk to the beach and also perfect for golf lovers, then this contemporary 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom residence will certainly appeal. The residence is only 7 years old and has 3 living areas and all the modern amenities that you would expect. Other features include a well-appointed kitchen with full Butlers pantry, direct access to the double garage, central heating and a central gas fireplace, rear undercover outdoor entertaining area and even a herb garden. The residence has a lovely coastal flavour with an abundance of natural light. A very appealing property in the popular Sands estate. Membership to the Sands Health Club including use of the gym, pool and tennis courts is also included with ownership.
