Commanding

Uncompromising, exceptional and outstanding are some of many adjectives you could use to describe the stunning views from this outstanding and immaculate coastal residence.

As you enter the property you have a feeling of spaciousness, privacy and quality. The upper level of the home provides uninterrupted and commanding views down the coast to Kennett River from literally every corner of the expansive open plan living area.

The home is well equipped for entertaining or for the budding master chef with a modern kitchen with Caesar stone bench tops and a 900mm ILVE Stove. The kitchen is the central hub of the home which leads to the beautiful sun filled expansive north facing and covered outdoor entertaining area - ideal for family gatherings. This substantial outdoor entertaining area also achieves blue water views through the living area.
