Immaculate

All those who view this immaculately presented property will not fail to be impressed by the practical layout, how it takes full advantage of its prominent corner position and how there is nothing further to spend on the property after recent upgrades. The property has always been maintained to high standards however recent upgrades such as new floor coverings, painting and garden make over will all benefit the new owner. Features include 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms (ensuite off main), large open plan lounge and dining area, well appointed galley style kitchen, large double garage, a good sized private back yard with under cover entertaining area, garden irrigation system and the best lemon tree in Geelong. This area has excellent access to all your needs with the Waurn Ponds shopping centre just around the corner. An excellent opportunity at an affordable price point with nothing more to spend other than the new furniture you will want to buy to match the condition of the residence.
