Modernist beach retreat with stunning ocean views

Rarely have we offered for sale such a truly loved modernist 1960's beach house. Beautifully refurbished and presented throughout with the most spectacular Point Roadknight and ocean views.

This privileged locale is a leisurely amble to Point Roadknight beach, Soapy rock and a 700 metre cliff top walk to the Anglesea Surf Club. Designed for relaxed living, the ever-changing views can be enjoyed year round.

Accommodation includes; three bedrooms all with built in cupboards and a separate living area framed by glass to capture the ocean views. The generous downstairs family/rumpus room is the perfect teenagers retreat. You are welcomed upstairs with three bedrooms, the master bedroom boasting stunning views to the sandy shores of Point Roadknight. A central original bathroom, restored kitchen and a gorgeous lounge and dining room flowing directly onto an entertainer's deck where Point Roadknight provides the stunning back drop.
