Perched High Above your Neighbors

Perched high above your neighbors, this two bedroom timber home packs a powerful punch, as you enter the home and ascend the stairs the view of the hills, the ocean and harbor will captivate you. The generous deck offers the ideal place for entertaining with family and friends and extends back inside to the living area with timber floorboards and air-conditioning. There is a modern and well appointed kitchen with quality stainless steel appliances and room for a dining table. With endless potential and the opportunity to add additional rooms downstairs. Other features of this seaside escape include off street parking under the veranda, an easy to maintain garden, storage shed, laundry and built in robes. Only minutes walk from the beach and close to Apollo Bay's shops and restaurants. This is the ideal coastal retreat to enjoy as a place of permanent residence or to maximise your income by offering it as an attractive holiday rental.
