Nature's Grandstand

If you are looking for a beautiful, natural and private oasis within 90 minutes of the Melbourne CBD, one that feels like nature's grandstand overlooking the breaking surf of Bass Straight, then this is definitely for you. Set on 10acres (app) and enjoying total privacy from its elevated position, this graceful 5 BR residence over looking Aireys Inlet, has one of the most beautiful panoramic outlooks on the Surfcoast. This combination of total privacy and stunning view is rarely available, as are small acreages with these attributes. The single level rendered brick residence is very eco-environmental with the its wrap around verandah, 5kw solar panels, 15,000 litre water tank and vegetable garden, all beautifully presented and welcoming from the minute of arrival. Complimented by a large open lawn and garden area in front of the residence, that has been regularly used for outdoor entertaining, the residence has a very user friendly layout and has seen significant upgrades in the current ownership. The large open plan living and kitchen area takes full advantage of the stunning view and
