Beautiful native haven with studio

Offers Required by 19 November 2018

This is a private haven where a creative contemporary four bedroom home resides in perfect harmony with its nature filled surrounds. There is space to breath here, to relax and let the busy life fall away.

The open plan includes a large living zone that flows from the main hub of the kitchen and dining area. In this light filled space, full height picture windows invite you to take in the picturesque outlook. The eucalypts frame the views to the river valley and to the paddocks complete with grazing kangaroos.

Sliding doors from the dining zone provide access to an enormous deck and it is just the perfect outdoor living room. There is space to entertain, relax and play or to sit and watch the king parrots watching you idly from the trees. The landscaped gardens are a work of art, bright bursts of spring colour mingle with sedate native planting, producing a serene effect. With a very substantial 1439sqm(app) allotment that enjoys two street frontages there is both excellent access and plenty of room to call your own. The fully self-contained
