Entry level with sea views

The quintessential beach house, positioned to look over the crashing waves and ocean which are only a short stroll away. Set in a relaxed Skenes Creek location where you can escape and remain stress-free and enjoy the slow pace of life by the ocean.

This original home offers the authentic beach shack feel, with timber lined walls and original feature wallpapers to give that genuine 70's feel. With a wonderful flow of spaces that always leads to a view, the central living and dining zones are surrounded by a timber wrap around decking offering a vantage point to check on the waves below. The home features 4 bedrooms, a central bathroom and downstairs offers a rumpus room/bedroom where the kids can have their own space which is adjoined by a separate bathroom and laundry. Other features include; ample underhouse storage, a spacious 645 sqm allotment, and parking for plenty of cars.
