Peaceful, Elevated Slice of Anglesea

Elevated with picturesque views of bush clad hills, this property has a warm and peaceful character that instantly feels like home. Its split-level design creates cosy spaces and the lime washed timber cathedral ceilings add a sense of volume and space.

Features include a generous lounge with a freestanding log fire and framed by glass to capture the sunny leafy outlook; a large kitchen with adjacent dining that flows to outdoor entertaining on multi level decks; and beautiful hardwood floors. There are three spacious bedrooms all with built in robes. Add to this ducted heating/cooling and solar panels. Flexibility is offered by one of the bedrooms to create a second living area with access to the sunny garden with sheltered outdoor living space. Outside features a cute freestanding studio providing room to get creative, accommodate guests or to work from home.
