Open and light filled with leafy outlook

With intriguing angles and an inviting split-level floor plan, this beautiful home is all about thinking outside the box. Open and light filled spaces capture the leafy views from every vantage point; especially the north facing living area that flows out to a large deck. This is the perfect spot to relax and entertain. There are three bedrooms in total; the sunny master suite includes an en-suite. Other highlights include spacious dining and a user-friendly kitchen with adjacent study nook and breakfast bar. The décor is calm coastal with timber accents and stunning messmate floors. Outside the native planting showcases the natural beauty of the area, and the 844sqm (approx) site offers plenty of room to play. Secure under home storage; undercover parking and additional off street parking are added bonuses.

Combining a touch of innovative individuality with practical functionality, this home not only looks and feels great but rates highly on the livability scale too. The extra peaceful location is perfect for anyone wanting to get away from the busyness for weekends or for life.
