Where you would rather be

Auction Saturday 8 February 2020 at 2pm

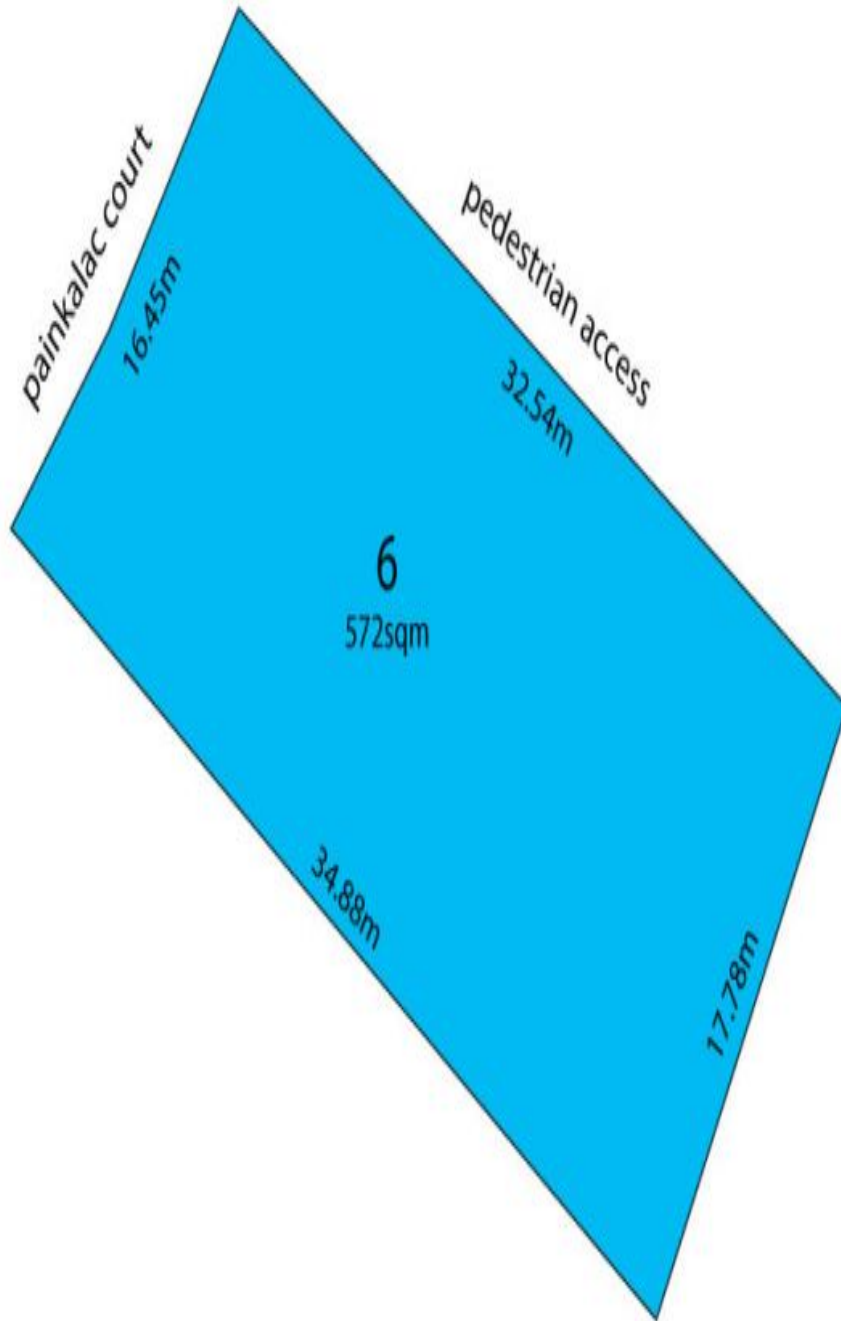

The superb position of this vacant allotment, set in the tightly held oceanside precinct, is the perfect location for your future beach house. The beautiful Inlet Beach and river are just around the corner in one direction and nearby shops and cafes in the other direction. The allotment is overlooked by the Split Point Lighthouse which creates a beautiful back drop for any future residence. Being a 572 sqm (app) level allotment, it is very user friendly and at a size where there is not too much to look after, but still with a good sense of space. Land in Aireys Inlet, particularly in the popular ocean side precinct, is becoming rarer by the day. Particularly so in the context that Aireys Inlet only has 1194 properties in total. Buying land also allows you to stagger your investment, so you can buy now and build when it suits. But importantly you have secured your spot for the future and what a spot it is. There is no time limit on building but once you do you will hardly ever need the car because everything you need is a short flat stroll away.
