Coastal Brilliance

Every element of this bespoke residence will surprise and delight. Expansive by nature yet warmly welcoming, there is an immediate sense of entering into an exclusive world. One of its many highlights is the open plan living zone. Soaring ceilings and extensive glazing together create a voluminous space that demands attention. Commercial grade sliding doors open up to blur the lines between indoors and out. A sleek and super functional kitchen is centrally positioned to provide a focal point for gathering, and along with the full butler's pantry, offers every convenience to ensure that entertaining is effortless.

A second separate living area appears to float above the superbly landscaped garden and provides a quiet and beautiful space to retreat to. The master suite is a haven that extends an invitation to luxuriate and rejuvenate. Its en-suite, with an inspired freestanding bathtub, comes with an exquisite private leafy outlook to enjoy. Two additional bedrooms have direct access to a shared bathroom, and both have generous built in storage.
