Beautiful light filled single level residence

OFFERS REQUIRED BY 24 FEBRUARY 2020

This contemporary 4BR north facing residence set on a 1000 sqm (app) corner allotment, is the ideal property for those who are looking for a coastal property that can cater for the needs of all age ranges. Built by well regarded Dennehy Homes in their famous rendered brick construction method, the residence offers dual living areas, a large north facing sundeck, two bathrooms (en-suite off main bedroom) and double lock up garage. The property is not only light filled, it also has a gorgeous outlook towards the National Park across the road that can never be compromised and where you can watch the kangaroos graze most nights. Being well appointed, single level and finished to a high standard the property is suitable for a holiday house, a permanent home or a combination of both. Even though the allotment is large it is low maintenance and has been deliberately maintained that way. The property is being sold fully furnished which not only adds value, it saves you time and is very convenient to any new owner. The quiet position will be loved by those who
