

615 Killala Road Apollo Bay, VIC

Private, 'off the grid' getaway

This gorgeous property has all the attributes of an idyllic country hideaway with the benefits of being only 10 kms from the stunning beaches and the cafés and restaurants of the seaside township of Apollo Bay. Situated on a sunny & private 2.4 ha (6.7 acres) the two bedroom, two bathroom, cottage has all of the amenities required to get you started for your weekend getaway. It has an open plan living, dining and lounge area with a separate bathroom. A wide veranda offers a place to sit and take in all of the surrounding vista which includes stunning views of the surrounding mountains, valleys, kookaburras, king parrots, blue wrens, koalas, wallabies all before breakfast.

The cottage is set back from the road, on a large flat site with plenty of cleared land around it offering the opportunity to expand. The cottage is solar powered with a 6.9 kW system. Mains power runs through the property should you require it. There are three large water tanks holding 75,000 litres and a septic system suitable for a three bedroom home so you can be totally sustainable and go completely green.
