Vacant land with plans approved.

Available vacant land in Aireys Inlet is extremely hard to find now due to the small overall numbers of the town generally. Aireys Inlet only has 1192 properties in total, of which most are now built on. The 590sqm (app) allotment has plans for a contemporary two storey dwelling endorsed and approved by the Surfcoast Shire. Although it is not compulsory to build this plan, they are ready to go if you like them and there is plenty to like. The property is centrally located and walking distance to all your needs which include shops, cafes, beaches and the nearby river. A great measure of a coastal property is being able to park the car and walk to everywhere and any future dwelling will certainly provide this. Would be ideal for a future retirement or lifestyle property that has not too much to look after but close to all your needs.
