New beach classic in Old Torquay. Call now to book your private inspection.

Old Torquay is one of the most tightly held and highly sought after precincts in Victoria at present. Given the enviable, walk to everywhere, beach side lifestyle with all your needs in close proximity, it is completely understandable why. The issue is that it is "old" Torquay and the majority of the housing is exactly that. This brand-new residence is a glimpse into the future while retaining the much loved design styles that are synonymous with classic, easy coastal living. This high quality property was designed and handcrafted to showcase how contemporary coastal living should be.

The understated sophistication of crisp white interiors complements the greenery and ocean views outside, forging a visual connection between indoors and out. High-pitched cathedral ceilings and extensive glazing provide light-filled living, with Silvertop Ash timber decking and burnished concrete flooring creating visual continuity.
