A concrete path leads to the front door with a covered verandah entrance. Through the front door is a tiled hall and timber stairs to the right leading to the first floor, which is light and bright with windows to the north, east and west. There is a second bathroom just off the landing with shower, toilet and vanity. The living area is open with a west balcony having mountain views on one side leading off the lounge, which is a large space, with hardwood floors, and reverse cycle air-conditioning with the dining space at the eastern end, with another balcony over the backyard with views to the harbour and ocean. The kitchen is adjacent with good storage, electric hotplates and oven, and space for a dishwasher. Downstairs there are 3 double bedrooms with carpet, built in robes and blinds.
