Anglesea excellence get summer ready

These two almost completed townhouses (completion due end of November 2020) feature high calibre architectural design. Combine this with luxury finishes and superior attention to detail for a unique experience right opposite the Anglesea river and main beach.

Both townhouses on offer have been individually adapted to make the most of light, river views and a connection to outdoor living.

Highlights include open plan living on the first floor that maximise the outlook while prioritising spacious, light filled liveability. An extensive kitchen, with a butler's pantry, forms the natural focal point of the home where friends and family will love to gather. Sheltered outdoor living invites entertaining and relaxing and showcases the river views. The master suite, also on this level, is a welcoming retreat and includes plentiful storage, an en-suite with a touch of luxe and balcony access.
