Elevated four bedroom home on a large block

Positioned on a corner block opposite the community gardens, Aquatic Centre and P12 College, this home is well located and offers country charm with high ceilings, fresh colours, polished timber floors and art deco features.

The living area with large windows, high ceilings and a gas heater is adjacent to the spacious kitchen centred around a large dining table, huge pantry, and original art deco appointments. There are two decks, one at the front facing east for your morning coffee and a rear entertaining deck overlooking the backyard with mountain views. Down the internal stairs is a double garage converted into a large rumpus room with plenty of storage.
