Just stunning! ~La Coupole~™

As you travel along the Great Ocean Road you pull off at Wongarra to one of the most remarkable residences & properties in Australia. Architect Col Bandy was given a brief to create a residence that promoted social interaction between the owners and guests, and this is evident from the moment you enter. At the edge of the Otway Ranges, the holding offers total privacy and positioned to have a full interaction with its stunning views in all directions.

Set on 400 acres of farmland, bush and returning forest, looking along the coast to Apollo Bay, with some Victoria's great coastal views and with surf breaking at the foot of the property - this is where "the best of country meets the best of the sea."
