Peace and tranquillity in Wild Dog Valley

Set high in Wild Dog Valley this stunning property has picturesque views of the forest and mountains in a tranquil setting. The magnificent cedar home, quality-built by local builder Peter Tripp has natural timbers and jarrah floors throughout. The very large octagonal living/dining room features high ceilings, picture windows facing from east around to the west overlooking the garden, a large wood heater and reverse cycle air conditioning. The sliding doors open onto the entertaining deck and surrounding verandah. There is a large cathedral ceiling kitchen with plenty of space, leadlight windows, custom cupboards, built-in pantry, gas cooktop and electric oven. A north facing sunroom leads off this, perfect for enjoying your breakfast!

There are three bedrooms including a spacious high ceiling octagonal master with picture windows, wood heater and walk-in robe (which could be easily converted into an ensuite). The second bedroom has a spectacular leadlight window and built-in robes, and there is a third carpeted bedroom. A central bathroom and laundry service the home, with a shower
