Sophisticated and Luxurious House nestled in Nature

This sophisticated house is perfectly located in the Wild Dog Valley and the property is set on two titles totaling 3.8ha (9.39 acres approx.) allowing for privacy and seclusion. The home is gorgeous and oozes luxury with a combination of Japanese Style and 1960s architecture. Designed by architects '6 Degrees' of Fitzroy, featuring four bedrooms, multiple living areas, beautiful gardens and a very large office study on the upper level that could make an amazing master bedroom.

Entrance to this property is from either Busty Road or Wild Dog Road allowing for dual access. You can enter the residence via the two-car garage and large workshop or through the main entrance with a tree lined courtyard and Japanese style pond. Upon entering the house it's hard to miss the exquisite finishings, timber accents and views from every window. The house is connected by a long naturally lit hallway with multiple rooms flowing off it and allows the house to have many zones.
