Idyllic Country Home Site

This 1,797 sqm block of land offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a peaceful and spacious country retreat. Situated in a tranquil location, in the rural town of Beech Forest, located near the Great Otway National Park and only a short stroll to the Beechy Pub. The property has dual access and the rear borders onto council reserve and the Old Beech Rail Trail. It provides a balance between convenience and serenity. With stunning views of the valley, the property offers a picturesque setting to build your dream home.

One of the notable features of this block is its well-planted landscape. Fruit trees, box hedges and conifers have been thoughtfully incorporated into the property, adding beauty, and enhancing the natural environment.
