Substantial north facing allotment with plans approved

This 1154sqm (app) corner allotment enjoys a beautiful north facing native bush aspect. Plans have been approved for a stunning 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom, 2 living area residence and the gradient of the property makes it very easy to build on. Situated directly opposite a road reserve in Narani Way, your privacy is guaranteed. The full set of plans and elevations are available on request. This particular allotment is well priced given all the hard work with architects and town planning has been done – all you need to do is call the builder.
